Animated Rhythms Course – Suggested Syllabus

Module 5: Preliminary Review; pg A-2 in the ECG Rhythms Field Guide Appendix (back of Rhythms Field Guide)

Module 6: Final Exam; pgs 17-26 Rhythms Manual

Using the Animated Tutorials Video w/ Optional Audio files: The Animated tutorials are in convenient video format. Please click on the settings gear icon in the lower right corner of the video frame and select “1080p” under the Quality setting for the sharpest viewing. Each video tutorial also includes an optional audio file which may be played at the same time as the video tutorial.

ECG Rhythm Field Guide Reference: Throughout the course you will see a red heart on some pages; this will appear on a given window to indicate a reference to the Field Guide. When this heart appears, please turn to the page number as shown in the overlay. As you read the online text and observe the animated tutorial, follow the material as referenced in the FIELD GUIDE. This will serve as an enhancement and will make the pocket guide more valuable as a future reference book.

Homework Sets: Please be aware that you must attain a minimum specified score in order to progress, otherwise the course is designed to not allow you to continue. You may retake a quiz as many times as needed in order to attain the needed score. There are 6 (six) Homework Practice Sets consisting of 5 rhythms each. These are designed to enhance your knowledge of the material covered up to that point. Each set is presented in a matching format.

Preliminary Review: Before completing the final online exam, you will encounter a “Module 5: Preliminary Review” of rhythm strips which will utilize the back of the Field Guide for answer choices.

Final Examination: Referring to the Tracing Manual, The final exam consists of 50 questions composed of: Fill-in-the-blank: 15 questions. True/false: 15 questions. Rhythms matching: 20 questions. You will have four attempts to complete the final. Each attempt is graded immediately online and the computer reports the highest of the scores and retains all scores.
